Geagte Ouers

Respek is 'n ingesteldheid wat 'n leefstyl behoort te word. Ons verwyf en raak omgekrap met mense wat nie respek toon vir wat vir ons belangrik is nie. Dikwels hou ons nie by die reëls en beleide nie en raak dan kwaad omdat ons dit nie respekteer nie.

Dit is verkeerd om die spoedgrens te oorskry, net soos dit verkeerd is om te steel. Dit is ook net so verkeerd om eise te stel wanneer beleidein plek gestel is, en ook om te vra dat uitsonderings gemaak word. Hierdie eise is 'n totale verontagsaming van die waardes waarvoor ons staan.

Ek het nie die bevoegdheid om toestemming te verleen dat 'n kind by die huis bly nie – ek neem net kennis en rapporteer afwesigheid aan die Departement. Dit is die ouer se keuse om 'n kind by die huis te hou, maar daar kan nie van die skool verwag word om sy beleide te verbreek wanneer die ouer dit verwag nie.

Die wet is duidelik: Die kind moet in die skool wees. Ouers is geneig om ekstra vakansiedae te skep en dan te eis dat ons ons beleide buig – en in die proses is hulle onbeleefd teenoor ons personeel. Ek respekteer 'n ouer se keuse, maar ek verwag ook dat die ouers ons beleide respekteer en selfs meer belangrik, my personeel respekteer wanneer hulle die beleide toepas.

"Two wrongs do not make a right" en om uitsonderings toe te laat, laat die venster oop vir meer en meer kreatiewe uitsonderings. Sunridge sal hou by die reëls en regulasies.

Baie dankie aan die ouers wat ons reëls, beleide en waardes respekteer.

Dear Parents

Respect is an attitude which needs to become a lifestyle. We tend to point fingers and become angry when people do not respect what is important to us. So often we neglect to stick to rules and policies due to a lack of respect and become upset as a result.

Exceeding the speed limit is wrong and so is stealing. Demanding things that go against our policies is also wrong and to ask for an exception to the rule is as well. Demanding this is a total disrespect to the values we stand for.

I do not have the authority to grant a child permission to stay out of school, I only take note and report absenteeism to the Department. It is the parent's choice to keep a child out of school and the school cannot be asked to contradict its policies due to the parent's decision.

The law is clear; a child needs to be at school. Parents tend to create extra days of holiday and then demand that we contradict our policies. This results in very rude behaviour towards our staff. I respect a parent's choice but expect them to respect our policies and, even more importantly, to respect my staff for adhering to our policies.

"Two wrongs do not make a right" and to allow exceptions opens up the window for more and more creative exceptions. Sunridge will adhere to the rules and our policies.

Thank you to those parents who respect us, our rules, policies and values.
