

Geagte Ouers

Hoewel ek sedert 2013 'n verskeidenheid onderwerpe in die nuusbriewe aangeraak het, het respek die vernaamste fokus - punt gebly. Dit is ook met die grootste respek dat ek mis-verstande probeer opklaar en ouers genooi het om by die skool betrokke te raak. Ons het nederig probeer om gelyke geleenthede vir alle ouers te skep om deel van hul kinders se opvoeding te word.

Dit was nie slegs 'n uitnodiging om te werk of finansiële by-draes te maak nie, maar om verantwoordelikheid te aanvaar om 'n aktiewe rol in u kind se akademiese ontwikkeling te speel.

Ek was verstom om te hoor dat ouers weier om met ons oor hul kinders se akademiese vordering te praat en selfs enige ondersteuning van die hand wys. Waarom bring ek dit onder u aandag? Sodat u nie u kind se eie grootste vyand word nie – kom ons trotseer die uitdagings saam sonder negatiewe gedrag of om dit wat verkeerd is, te veroordeel.

Kinders leer uit hul foute en ons as volwassenes moet saamstaan met regstel, aanpas, beheer en bid in hierdie proses van die lewe.

Ons interne 50%-slaagsyfer het 'n verskil gemaak aan die verhoging van ons akademiese standaard en die feit dat ons seker van ons saak was as waarde-gedrewe skool, het ook 'n verskil gemaak. Ons fokus op die 95% positiewe ouers en gelukkige kinders, maar ons sal nie die 5% negatiewe mense verwerp of ignoreer nie.

Ons sal hulle met respek en waardigheid behandel, maar on-gelukkig verwag ons dieselfde van hulle.

Hiermee in gedagte, moet ek vrae vra oor ons kinders se gewoontes op digitale en tegnologie-gebied.

Watter TV-programme kyk ons kinders? Beskerm ons ons kinders teen dit wat op DSTV beskikbaar is? Wie besluit oor die ouderdomsperk van 'n program? Wie weet wat daagliks aan ons kinders opgedis word met Whatsapp, Facebook, ens? En die magtige Google?

U sal verstom wees as u bietjie navorsing doen. U sal ontdek dat kinders programme kyk wat vir volwassenes geskik is, dat ouderdomsperke belaglik is, daar is afgryslike Whatsapp-taal en Facebook-boodskappe en Google-blaaie waarvan ek nooit gedroom het nie.

U moet deel word van u kind se lewe en 'n voorbeeld stel, want die jeug gaan vra: "Wat is op jou Whatsapp, Pa? En op jou Facebook-bladsy, Ma?"

Dear Parents

Since 2013 I have touched on a variety of topics in the newsletters. Respect, however, has remained the main focus throughout. It's with the utmost respect that I have tried to clear up misconceptions by inviting parents to become involved with the school. We humbly tried to create equal opportunity for all parents to serve and be part of education.

This was not only an invitation for hard labour and financial contributions, but more importantly to be actively involved in your child's academic development.

I was surprised to find that some parents refused to talk to us about their child's academic performance and even rejected the support offered. Why do I bring this to your attention? So that you do not become your child's own worst enemy. Let's face the challenges together, without negativity.

Children learn through mistakes, and as adults we need to work together to adjust, repair, manage and pray in this process of life.

Our internal 50% pass mark has made a difference in uplifting our academic standard, and the fact that we stood our ground as a value driven school has also made a difference. We will continue to focus on the 95% of parents and children who are positive and happy but will not reject or ignore the 5% of those who are negative.

We will treat them with the respect and dignity they deserve, but we will unfortunately demand to be treated with the same respect and dignity.

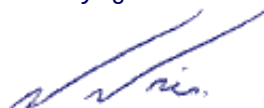

With this in mind I need to pose some questions regarding our childrens' digital and technological habits.

What are our children watching on TV? Are we protecting our children against what is available on DSTV? Who decides on the age restriction of a programme? Who knows what "WhatsApp", "Facebook" etc. has brought to our children daily? The mighty "Google"?

A simple check will stun you. It will reveal that children are watching programmes suitable for adults, it will reveal that age restrictions are a joke, it will reveal horrifying "WhatsApp" language and "Facebook" messages. It will reveal "Google" pages that you would never have thought of. You need to become a part of your child's life in a positive manner and set an example, because the question from the youth will be: "What's on your WhatsApp dad and on your Facebook page mum?"

FOCUS ON Samantha Killian

EARLY LIFE: I had a great primary school career. I attended Swartland Primary School in Malmesbury and went to boarding school there as well. As English classes were limited the English kids were in the same class as the Afrikaans pupils. I was in Std 2, then and my brother was in Std 5 and we were in the same class and taught by the same teacher. I then moved onto the best school in the Eastern Cape halfway through Grade 4 and joined Sunridge Primary School. I attended Lawson Brown High.

FAMILY LIFE: Well what can I say. I have many children my 4 doggies, 1 kitty, and the many monkeys that we feed on our small holding plus all the other wildlife that surprise me almost on a daily basis.

CAREER LIFE: From school I joined the SA Navy. I resigned in 1993 and came back to PE where I started at BTC Office Equipment and then I made it back to Sunridge Primary School in March 1993.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: Well just trying to enjoy every day as much as I can.

INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT YOURSELF: I have done many raft races in Natal. The Commemorative March in Cape Town 3 times and I am actually an arty person.
