

Geagte Ouers

Ek het onlangs die Internasionale Konfederasie van Skoolhoofde-vergadering in Kaapstad bygewoon. Ons het geluister en onderwysaangeleenthede met 'n tema soos "Brain Waves of Change" bespreek, dus kan 'n mens verwag dat nuus van regoor die wêreld met 'n paar 'kruislegkaarte' uitdagings aan radikale leierskap sal stel.

Die radikale leierskap waarvan ek praat, verwys daarna dat verandering onafwendbaar en groei opsioneel is. Met die GETY wat draai en soos dinge moeiliker raak, glo ek dat eerlikheid in ons gemeenskap en in ons skool sigbaar moet wees. Gelukkig is dit een van ons kernwaardes en die gesegde "Groot Dinge het nog nooit uit Gemaksones voortgespruit nie" herinner my aan 'n gedeelte uit die gedig deur Unathi A. Solontsi: "You are beautiful - so be you to the full".

Sê aan u kinders dat hulle pragtig is, leer hulle om pragtig te wees, leer hulle om betekenisvolle stories te wees, stories wat miljoene goudstawe werd is, ons kinders is goud!

Goud moet gesuiwer word en dit vereis hitte, uiterste hitte, om van al die onsuiverhede ontslae te raak.

Ek is onvoorwaardelik lief vir kinders, maar ek glo ook ons moet eerlik wees om goed te doen. Indien die skoen pas, trek dit aan. In die huidige finansiële klimaat staan ek verstom oor die hoeveelheid verlore goedere wat by die skool agtergelaat word. Afkondigings en tallose geleenthede om verlore artikels op te eis, was onsuksesvol. Hierdie artikels is duur en sekerlik word dit gemis?

Dit is ook waar dat ons soms artikels verloor wat nooit gevind word nie. Ongelukkig is dit heeltemal 'n ander storie as iets by die skool gelaat en nooit opgeëis word nie.

Dit is nie net respek vir ons besittings nie, maar ook om verantwoordelikheid daarvoor te aanvaar wat in hierdie geval afwesig is.

Die skool of onderwysers kan nie verantwoordelikheid vir kinders se eiendom en om verlore artikels op te spoor, aanvaar nie. Help ons asseblief deur hierdie basiese vaardigheid van verantwoordelikheid tuis aan te leer.

Hierdie aspek is ook van toepassing op dissipline, huiswerk, ens. Deur te verseker dat dit aangeleer word, kan u waarde tot u kind toevoeg. Kinders is goud en hulle verdien dat waarde tot hulle toegevoeg moet word. Onthou "Groot Dinge het nog nooit uit Gemaksones voortgespruit nie", so begin deur voorraadopname te doen en terwyl u daarmee besig is, maak dit ook van toepassing op Respek, Integriteit, Deernis en Eerlikheid.

Miskien het u kind nog nooit iets verloor nie – maar kyk dan gerus na "asseblief" en "dankie". Meneer, wanneer laas het u 'n deur vir 'n dame oopgemaak? So af en toe kan nie kwaad doen nie, en Mevrou, onthou tog asseblief om "dankie" te sê.

Dit is 'n feit dat mense van mekaar sal verskil, maar die waardes wat ons uitleef, sal die waardes wees wat ons kinders uitleef.

"You are beautiful - so be you to the full"

Dear Parents

I recently attended the International Confederation of Principals meeting in Cape town. Listening and discussing educational issues with the theme "Brain Waves of Change" you can expect that news from across the world might have a few 'cross puzzles' adding challenges to radical leadership.

The radical leadership I am talking about is that change is inevitable and growth optional. With the TIDE turning and things getting tougher, I believe that honesty needs to be evident in our society and in our school. Luckily it is one of our values and the saying that "Great Things never came from Comfort Zones" makes me think of the extract from the Poem by Unathi A. Solontsi: "You are beautiful so be you to the full".

Tell your children that they are beautiful, teach them to be beautiful, teach them to be meaningful stories, stories worth millions in gold, our children are gold!

Gold needs to be purified and that requires heat, extreme heat, to get rid of all the impurities.

I love children unconditionally but believe we need to be honest to be kind. Should the shoe fit, wear it. In financial times, I cannot believe the amount of lost property left at school. Announcements and plenty of opportunities to reclaim lost items are unsuccessful. These items are expensive and must surely be missed?

It is also true that we sometimes lose items and they are never found. Sad to say it is a different ball game when what has been left at school is never looked for or claimed.

It is not only respect for what we have, it is to take responsibility for it, and this is what is missing in this case.

Neither the school or the teachers are in the wrong; it is not our responsibility to look after the children's property or to look for lost items. Please help us by teaching the basic value of responsibility at home.

Responsibility can be carried through to discipline, homework, etc. and by ensuring it is taught you will add value to your child. Children are gold and they deserve this value to be added. Remember; "Great Things never came from Comfort Zones" so start by taking stock, and while you are at it please apply it to Respect, Integrity, Compassion and Honesty.

Perhaps your child has never lost anything - then please check on "thank you" and "please". Gents, when last did you open a door for a lady? Once in a while will never hurt and ladies, that "thank you" can never be forgotten either.

It is a fact that people will disagree but the values we live by will be the values our children live by.

"You are beautiful so be you to the full"
