Geagte Ouers

Ons het onlangs aan die Wildeklawer-toernooi in Kimberley deelgeneem, waar ongeveer 4 000 leerlinge van reg oor Suid-Afrika rugby- en netbalwedstryde gespeel het. Ontwikkelingspanne, wat laer- en hoërskole ingesluit het, het ook aan die toernooi deelgeneem.

Die stad het gewemel van verkeer en voetgangers. Parkering was 'n nagmerrie en dit was verskriklik om te sien hoe slaggate, padwerke en ontwikkeling meer en meer druk op beskikbare bronne plaas.

Dit was ongelooflik om te sien hoe geduldig en verdraagsaam die inwoners en besoekers die situasie die hoof bied. Dit is werklik 'n voorbeeld vir ons almal en ek rig 'n nederige versoek aan ons ouers om geduld en verdraagsaamheid by ons skool aan die dag te lê.

Die ondersteuning van ons ouers was fantasties – hul ondersteuning was onvoorwaardelik, ongeag die uitkoms en dit is waarom hierdie geleentheid die moeite werd was.

Afrigters het hul langnaweek opgeoffer om hierdie geleentheid, hierdie behoefte tot erkenning, te skep. Ons het so daaraan gewoon geraak dat ons dit wat hulle doen as vanselfsprekend aanvaar. Soos die hoofborg by Wildeklawer genoem het – die moeite en passie van onderwysers en afrigters is die hoeksteen van die toekoms.

Ek moet ook noem dat die beskikbaarstelling van fasiliteite en skep van geleenthede 'n integrale deel van ouerwees is. Die opofferings van hierdie ouers en vriende ter ondersteuning van hul skool stel 'n voorbeeld wat ons gerus kan navolg. Ek nooi ouers en vriende weer om deel van Sunridge se nalatenskap te word. Wat ek vir Sunridge kan doen, is die vraag om te vra en die verhaal om te vertel.

Met die oog op die toekoms het ons alle moontlike projekte en ontwikkelings om die toekoms te bou ter tafel gelê en almal is welkom om by ons aan te sluit of verantwoordelikheid vir hierdie inisiatiewe te aanvaar. Dit is waar dat u in sommige gevalle nie voordeel uit die fasiliteite sal trek nie, maar dit sal meer lonend wees om deel van die nalatenskap te wees.

Ons Derbydag teen Sonop Primêre Skool eerskomende Saterdag is die ideale geleentheid om die skool te ondersteun en betrokke te raak.

Ons Sunridge 7's wat op 19 Mei plaasvind, skep die geleentheid vir meer as 1000 leerlinge om deel te neem. Ons speel hokkie, netbal en rugby, terwyl die OOV eet-en drinkgoed sal verkoop.

Kom ondersteun die skool terwyl u 'n heerlike dag met u kind, 'n vriend of net die Sunridge-familie geniet.

Dear Parents,

We recently participated at the Wildeklawer tournament in Kimberly where approximately 4000 learners, from all over South Africa, participated in rugby and netball. Development teams were also part of the tournament which included primary schools and high schools.

The city overflowed with traffic and pedestrians. Parking was a nightmare and it was horrific to see how potholes, roadwork's and development put more stress on the available resources.

It was unbelievable to see the patience and tolerance of the local people and visitors were in dealing with it. Truly an example for all of us and I humbly request all parents to apply patience and tolerance at our school.

The support from our parents was fantastic - supporting our teams irrespective of the outcome and learning from the best made this opportunity worthwhile.

Coaches gave up their long weekend to create this opportunity and this needs to be acknowledged. We have become so used to this that we neglect to appreciate what they do. As mentioned by the main sponsor at Wildeklawer, the efforts and passion of teachers and coaches is the cornerstone for the future.

I also need to point out that the available facilities and creating of opportunities are an integrated part of being a parent. Seeing and experiencing the effort made by these parents and friends in support of their school sets an example worth following. I again invite parents and friends to become part of the legacy at Sunridge. What can I do for Sunridge is the question to be asked and the story to be told.

Moving forward - we have previously tabled all possible projects and developments to create the future and to allow all to join in or take responsibility by actually taking ownership of some of these initiatives. It is true that in some cases you will not enjoy the facilities to follow but more rewarding will be to be part of the legacy.

Hosting a Derby day against Sonop Primary School this coming Saturday is an ideal opportunity to support and get involved with the school.

Our Build It Sunridge 7's will be held on Saturday, 19 May creating opportunities for approximately a 1000 learners to participate. We will be playing girls hockey, netball and rugby and our PTA will be selling something to eat and drink. Please join us and support our school, while enjoying a day with your child, a friend or just the Sunridge family.

We look forward to seeing you at school to support and enjoy the day with us.

Sonskyngroete / Sunshine greetings
