

Geagte Ouers

Dit is weer tyd vir ons jaarlikse Sonskynfees en die Familieklub werk baie hard en maak regtig 'n groot verskil met 'n vars, nuwe aanslag. Mamas en Pappas werk saam om ons skool te ondersteun en tot ons sukses by te dra.

Kontak die Familieklub, raak betrokke en maak 'n verskil.

Die opgraderings van ons fasiliteite het met 'n knal weggespring en soos ons verwag het, is die behoefte vir 'n dansateljee in die toekoms ook by die lys gevoeg. Die klaskamers wag net vir 'n tegniese punt om opgeklaar te word en die rugbypawiljoen is in die 3D-tekenfase. Ons kan nie wag om meer besonderhede bekend te maak nie, soos meer en meer ouers betrokke raak en deel in die positiewe ingesteldheid teenoor ons skool.

Met gelukkige kinders wat ons skool geniet, is ons geseënd om in staat te wees om hulle toekoms te bou. "Die toekoms is nou".

Dit is wonderlik om te hoor hoe voormalige leerlinge ons skool en al die positiewe ontwikkelings bespreek. Dit is ook 'n vreugde om te hoor dat voormalige leerlinge op akademiese, sport- en kultuurgebied uitblink. Wat Gr 1 vir aanstaande jaar aanbetref, het ons 127 aansoeke op die waglys. Die feit is dat ons wel foute mag maak, maar ons doen beslis iets reg!

Wanneer ons hoor dat voormalige Sunridge-leerlinge onder die toppresterders by die meeste hoërskole is, stem dit ons tot nederigheid want ons weet dat harde werk nooit stop nie.

Wanneer ons onderwyssake en inligting met ander skole en Skoolhoofde deel en veral wanneer uitkomst en die vordering van leerlinge ter sprake kom, is dit 'n openbaring om te besef dat hoër- en laerskole met dieselfde probleme worstel – kinders se verantwoordelikheid om aanspreeklikheid te aanvaar vir dit wat hulle doen en nie doen nie. Ons het gesamentlik besluit dat die gewoonte om die blaam te skuif iets is wat ons dringend moet aanspreek. Na my mening is dit 'n nasionale krisis wat oor die jare vasgelê is!

Ons moet daarvan kennis neem dat tussen 17% en 23% van universiteitstudente in hul eerste jaar suksesvol is, hetsy op akademiese gebied of met die maak van regte keuses.

Dear Parents

Once again it is time for our annual Sunshine Festival and the Family Club are working hard and truly making a huge difference with a fresh and new approach. Mums and Dads working together: supporting and contributing to the success of our school.

Get involved and make a difference - contact with the Family Club.

The upgrades to our facilities have commenced with a "bang" and not surprisingly a need for a dance studio has also been added for the future. The classrooms are just awaiting a technicality and the rugby pavilion is in a 3D drawing stage. We cannot wait to forward details as more and more parents get involved to support and share the positive attitude towards our school.

With happy children who enjoy our school we are blessed and in good stead to build their future. "The future is now"

It is wonderful to hear past pupils talking about our school and all the positive developments. It is also satisfying to hear when past pupils excel academically, in sport and in cultural aspects of life. Looking at Grade 1 for next year we have 127 more applications than we can accommodate. The fact is we might make mistakes but we are doing something right!

When we hear that Sunridge learners are among the top achievers in most high schools we are humbled as we know that hard work never stops.

It is an eye opener when dealing with educational matters and sharing information with other schools and Principals, together with specific talks on the outcomes reached and the progress of our learners in high schools'. We all struggle with children and their "responsibility" to be accountable for what they do and do not do. Collectively we have realised that the habit set to shift the "blame" is something we need to address urgently. In my opinion it is a national crisis embedded over the years!

The information that only between 17% and 23% of students at university are successful in their first year, either academically or with the right choices, is something to be noted.
