

Geagte Ouers

Ons Gr 5- tot 7-leerlinge gaan aanstaande week op toer. Baie dankie aan ons graadhoofde en personeel wat alle reëlins in plek geplaas het en steeds hierdie diens aanbied. Daar is onderwysers by die skool aan diens om met die kurrikulum voort te gaan vir die leerlinge wat verkies om nie op toer te gaan nie. Dit is nie 'n vakansie nie, buitelugopvoeding word deur die Onderwysdepartement as deel van die kurrikulum goedgekeur en ons maak seker dat die beplande opvoedkundige program gevolg word.

Dit sluit uiters belangrike sosiale vaardighede en ontwikkeling in. Dissiplinêre maatreëls sal ingestel word teen enige leerling wat buite ons gedragskode optree en ek sal, soos in die verlede, onbeplande besoeke aan enige van die groepe bring. Ons staan ook gereed om enige leerling wat die groep as gevolg van dissiplinêre aangeleenthede in gevaar stel, te gaan haal.

Dit daar gelaat – ek weet dat ons kinders die toere geniet en baie pret het. Ek weet ook dat hulle gedrag onberispelik sal wees en dat my onderwysers die regte voorbeeld sal stel en leiding sal neem. Hulle sien uit na die buitelugopvoeding en as ouers moet ons hulle die avontuur gun.

Laat hulle asseblief toe om die uitstappie te geniet, neem 'n tree terug en laat hulle self besluit of hulle hul ouers wil kontak. Kom ons volg hulle op die skool se Facebookblad. Dit is nie moontlik om foto's van al die leerlinge plaas nie – ons plaas soveel moontlik van die foto's wat aan ons gestuur word.

Veiligheid berus by die graadhoof, toeroperateurs en diensverskaffers. Kom ons bid vir veiligheid op die pad, 'n veilige rit en die welstand van al ons leerlinge. Ondersteun die groep deur te hou by die reëls soos in die toerdokumente uiteengesit en deur ons onderwysers en uiteindelik ons kinders te vertrou.

Ons wens die Gr 4's alles van die beste toe vir hul daguitstappies. Ons moet in hul opgewondenheid deel, want dit is die voorloper vir die toere wat later volg.

Gr 1 tot 3 gaan soos gewoonlik by die skool voort. Hulle geniet ook die gevoel dat die hele skool aan hulle behoort en dat die Gr 3's nou die seniors is. Dit is nogal vreemd om daaraan gewoond te raak dat die algemene geraasvlak so laag is.

Dear Parents

Our grade 5 - 7 learners will be on tour next week. Thanks to our Grade Heads and staff making the necessary arrangements so as to continue with this service. There will be teachers at school to continue with the curriculum for those learners who chose not to go on tour. This is not a holiday and Outdoor Education, as approved by the Department of Education, is part of the curriculum. We take care to ensure that we follow the planned educational program.

It also includes very important social skills and development. Disciplinary measures will be taken against any learners acting outside of our "Code of Conduct" and I will, as in the past, visit any of the groups unannounced. We are also ready to fetch any learner who, as a result of any disciplinary issues, puts our groups at risk.

Be that as it may, I know our children also need to enjoy the tours and have fun. I also know that they will behave and that my teachers will provide the guidance and example. They look forward to outdoor education and as parents we need to let them enjoy the adventure!

Please allow them to be “free”, “butt out” as they say and let them decide if they want to contact their parents. We can follow them on the school FaceBook page. It is not possible to post photos of all the learners - we will post, as many photos as possible, as forwarded to us.

Safety is in the hands of the Grade Head, tour operators and service providers. Let us pray for safety on the roads, a safe tour and the well being of all our learners. Support the group by adhering to the rules as set out in the tour documents and by trusting our teachers and actually by trusting your child.

We wish the grade 4's all the best with their day excursions. We must share in their excitement as this is a learning curve for their tours in the future.

Grades 1 - 3 will continue as normal at school. They also enjoy the fact that they suddenly own the whole school, with the Grade 3's now being the seniors! With the general noise level being lower, it is quite something to get used to.
