Dear Parents

Extra Mural Activities

"Bulletjies and Blommetjies" rugby and netball creates opportunities for our young ones to play the game irrespective of the outcome. We need to organize more opportunities as these youngsters want to play and their parents are behind them all the way. We love this as taking part is all that really matters.

One feels a real sense of pride when speaking to parents next to the sports field and witnessing the love and support they show their children. To be addressed as 'uncle' by parents who did not recognize the Principal was also great fun. Luckily the children put the matter straight or else I would be haunted by the retirement bug! We must accept it though that age creeps up on us all!

The main focus was on the children enjoying taking part as well as their parents' support. Maybe the hamburgers and pancakes were strong competition BUT seeing how a brave young man with a broken arm was supported by his brother and parents brought home the true feeling of the strong Sunridge Family we are building for the future.

Diving on a netball ball on a grass court and struggling with the concept is all part of it. Just think, in a few years time they will probably play at a SA Netball Championships or maybe represent our school at the Eastern Province Super 12 Rugby Finals. While they are still busy finding their feet let us support them, create opportunities for them and refrain from applying the "win" pressure.

There are a few more opportunities coming up - let us use them and even though we all want to take part in matches it might sometimes only become a reality later on. At the moment there might only be opportunities to practice but opportunities will come in the future. We are working hard to create match opportunities for our young ones, maybe not a match as some would like but a match on their level!

Thank you to everyone who supports our children and to the staff who coach them - you are so special!

Buitemurse Aktiwiteite

“Bulletjies en Blommetjies” rugby en netbal bied die geleentheid vir die jongspan om aan sport deel te neem, ongeag die uitkoms. Ons moet meer geleenthede skep, want hierdie kindertjies is honger vir deelname en hul ouers ondersteun hulle al die pad. Ons hou daarvan, want deelname is al wat werklik saak maak.

Daar wel ‘n trotse gevoel in jou binneste op as jy met die ouers langs die sportveld gesels en die liefde en ondersteuning wat hulle aan al die kinders bewys, aanskou. Om deur ouers wat nie die Skoolhoof herken het nie, as “oom” aangespreek te word, was vet pret. Gelukkig het die kinders die situasie beredder, anders sal die aftree-heimwee my dalk tref. Ons moet tog maar aanvaar dat die ouderdom ons almal bekruipt.

Die fokus was egter op die kinders wat die sport so geniet het, asook die ouers se ondersteuning. Miskien het die hamburgers en pannekoek ook ‘n mededingende rol gespeel, MAAR om te sien hoe ‘n dapper jong man met ‘n gebreekte arm deur sy broer en ouers ondersteun word, het ‘n gevoel van die sterk Sunridge-familie wat ons vir die toekoms bou, by ons tuis-gebring.

Om ‘n netbalbal op ‘n grasbaan plat te duik en met die konsep te worstel, is alles deel daarvan. Stel jou voor, oor ‘n paar jaar speel hulle waarskynlik in die SA-Netbalkampioenskappe of verteenwoordig hul skool by die Oostelike Provinsie Super 12 Rugbyfinaal. Kom ons ondersteun hulle, want hulle is nog besig om hul voete te vind – kom ons skep die geleenthede en weerhou ons daarvan om die “wen”-druk toe te pas.

Daar is nog ‘n paar geleenthede in die toekoms – kom ons benut dit, maar hoewel ons graag aan wedstryde wil deelneem, kan dit dalk eers later oor ons pad kom. Op die oomblik is daar miskien net die geleentheid om te oefen, maar geleenthede wink wel in die toekoms. Ons sit skouer aan die wiel om wedstrydgeleenthede vir ons jongspan te skep, miskien nie ‘n wedstryd in iemand anders se oë nie, maar ‘n wedstryd op hul vlak!

Dankie aan almal wat ons kinders ondersteun en aan die personeel wat hulle afrig – julle is so spesiaal!
